Gathering

Setting

Create a welcoming environment by having everything in place before the young people arrive

- a sign in sheet
- name badges for each person to collect
- the liturgical space in which the Rite of Acceptance will be celebrated
- refreshments for the young people and their families following the service

Welcome and Introduction

- Welcome the young people by name.
- Remind them that their parents will return for the Rite of Acceptance Liturgy at the end of the session
- Provide the context for the gathering.
- Outline the process, the aim and outline of the gathering for today.

Review Previous Gathering

Remind the group of the story of Zacchaeus, focusing on God's acceptance of all people, being highlighted at the last get together.

Ask if there are any questions or comments arising from the conversations or further reflections and invite sharing of these.

Exploring

- Use Crossroads Inquiry Session 3 - Preparing for the Rite of Acceptance - material for 30-40 minutes

Optional Activities (for use, or to add if you have more time with the young people)

- Activity – To be a Christian
(use as the initial activities and leave the rehearsal of the questions for the Rite of Acceptance until the end.)
 - Ask the young people to consider how they might complete the phrase To be a Christian means...
 - Write the responses on a whiteboard, large sheet of paper or computer linked to a projector.
 - Allow a minute or so, then invite further elaborations of the statement, affirming responses and where necessary teasing out to clarify the meaning.
- Share with the young people the three questions they will be asked during the Rite of Acceptance.
- Check their understanding of the answers, especially the for the third question, and explain as necessary. If any core elements of belief in God and Jesus, as expressed in the Creed are mentioned, (see Tenets of Faith) check understanding and provide explanation as needed.
- Invite further questions and refer to the Creed as the universal expression of the Christian faith, which we profess each Sunday at Mass.

What we believe and hope for

- Using their journals ask the young people to reflect on each of the three questions below and then make a response using their own words
 - Becoming a Christian means...
 - I have chosen this path because...
 - Belief in Christ changes my life by...

Living as Christians

- Ask the group to look at the two RCIA texts 254 and 257, and to consider the question 'how do we do this in our everyday lives?'
- Invite young people to share their responses.
- Then allow a couple of minutes for the young people to write notes in the Activity Book or Journal.

Scripture Reflection

Read Jesus calls Peter [John 1:35-42] and reflect on the Gospel, as in the Crossroads notes Session 3 of Crossroads

Explain to the young people that in the Gospel, a change of name marks a new start, a change of destiny. The Rite of Acceptance is for them a new start too, the first formal recognition of being part of the Christian family.

- Invite the young people to reflect for a few moments on how that feels, and to consider how their life and relationships with others might change as a result.
- Ask them to write these down in their Journals.

During this time play youtube clip of the song will Follow by Chris Tomlin (see Crossroads session 3)

Prayer an alternative

Together slowly and gently, we offer this prayer.

Lord Jesus,

Just as you invited the men of Galilee to 'come and see'
so too have you called each of us on this journey of faith.

The Galileans gave up everything to follow you.

The change we are called to make today is a change of heart, one that puts you Lord at the center of our life.

help us each day to acknowledge you as the one we must follow.

Lord be with us each step of the way.

Amen.

Preparation for the Rite of Acceptance

Move to the area in which the Liturgy will take place. It is advisable to use a different space to the usual gatherings such as another area of the room / building, or to use the church.

Welcome the family members and if present the parishioners drawn from different ministries, representing the community.

Provide an overview of what will happen.

Explain to all present that the Service is a Liturgy of the Word, with the appropriate greeting and prayers taken from the Missal and the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)
(see 9-12 Rite of Welcome and Acceptance)

Outline of the Rite of Acceptance:

It is important that this Rite be celebrated with an actively participating but small congregation.
