Covid 19 restrictions are still a reality in our community and we must not become complacent about best practice. Government regulations instruct us to continue to take all appropriate measures and precautions to ensure the safety of the community from contracting Covid 19.

As we do not know if the restrictions will be lifted by the Rite of Election, I am planning according to the current regulations. This means that we ensure we maintain the appropriate distance between each person and therefore, there will be a limit to those who can attend the Rite of Election.

At this point those who are invited to attend The Rite of Election will be the catechumens and candidates with their sponsor, the Coordinator and members of the RCIA team, the parish priest and a limit of two family members.

Also, because of the Covid restrictions we are unable to offer light refreshments after the ceremony.

I will continue to monitor government instructions and if updates occur that will allow additional guests, I will inform you.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

The Rite of Reception of Names and the Rite of Sending from the Parish

The Rite of Reception of Names and the Rite of Sending from the Parish is an optional rite. It is a parish companion to the Rite of Election in dioceses where the Rite of Election is held as a Cathedral celebration.

The aim is for the Parish community (particularly catechists, sponsors, and others who have travelled closely with the catechumens and candidates) to give witness to the catechumens and candidates readiness to be called to the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil. As a result of this witness, the catechumens and candidates are invited to sign the scrolls which will be presented to the Archbishop or his delegate at the Rite of Election of Catechumens and Formal Recognition of Candidates at the Cathedral. Their names will then be inscribed in the Archdiocesan Book of the Elect or Book of Recognition.

Attention should be given to making the Rite of Reception of Names and the Rite of Sending from the Parish as warm and personal as possible.

THE RITE OF ELECTION

When is the Rite of Election

The Rite of Election of Catechumens and Formal Recognition of Candidates closes the period of the catechumenate and coincides with the beginning of Lent. Over the lengthy catechumen process, time has been given for the gradual deepening of understanding in the hearts and minds of those seeking conversion and desire to join the Catholic faith. The period of Lent, thereby is an intense and final stage, leading to the 'Elect' receiving the Sacraments of Initiation and becoming full members of the Catholic faithful.

[RCIA 105]

Reason for the Rite

The Rite of Election has a dual understanding. The catechumens and candidates will be presented to the Archbishop or his delegate, who represent the Universal Church. In presenting themselves, the catechumens and candidates have elected to affirm their readiness to begin the final path towards being received into the Church.

Election by God

This election includes the divine reality of God's election of the catechumens and candidates to become full members of the Catholic faith at Easter.

Testimony

The Parish RCIA team of catechists, God-parents, and sponsors who have guided and supported the catechumens and candidates through their conversion journey, in accord with their respective responsibilities and in their own way, believe the catechumens and candidates are well prepared to advance towards the Sacraments of Initiation and be fully received as members of the Catholic Church at Easter.

[RCIA 106, 108]

Homily

The Archbishop, in his Homily, has the responsibility of showing the religious and ecclesial significance of the Election. He also asks the catechumens and candidates to give a personal expression of their intention and, in the name of The Church, he carries out the act of admitting them as Elect.

[RCIA 112]

Declaration

The Archbishop declares before all present the Church's decision, and if appropriate asks the community to express its approval of the catechumens and candidates. He should remind the faithful to give good example to the Elect and along with the Elect prepare themselves for the Easter solemnities.

[RCIA 112]

Discernment for Election and Preparation for Full Communion

Before the Rite of Election is celebrated, catechumens and candidates are expected to have undergone conversion of mind and action, and to have developed a sufficient acquaintance with Christian teaching as well as a spirit of faith and charity. With deliberate will and an enlightened faith they must have the intention to receive the sacraments of the Church, a resolve they will express publicly in the actual celebration of the rite.

[RCIA 107]

A Process of Discernment

1. Relationship with Christ

- Has the catechumen/ candidate deepened in their personal relationship with Christ?
- Is the catechumen/candidate growing in understanding of the meaning of discipleship?

2. Familiarity with the Gospels

- Has the catechumen/candidate developed familiarity with Christ's teachings through the sharing of the Gospel readings during the catechumenate period?
- Has he or she been open to receiving the Word of God?
- Does he or she struggle with any demands of The Word?

3. Deepening Prayer and Worship

- In the spirit of faith and charity, has the catechumen and candidate deepened their relationship with Christ through prayer and worship?
- Does he or she seek God in prayer with confidence and trust?
- Has he or she developed a personal relationship with God?
- Is he or she participating in the Parish Liturgies and Masses as far as possible?

4. Increased understanding of belonging to Parish community

- Has the catechumen/candidate found the Parish community a place of welcome and support?
- Does he or she desire to become members and serve the Parish community according to their own charisms and ability?
- Does the catechumen/candidate welcome the insights into the Catholic community, and been instructed on the fundamentals of Christian life?

5. Developing a response to mission

- Is the catechumen/candidate beginning to understand Christ's call to living discipleship in their daily lives?

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading [Isaiah 43: 1-3]

But now, thus says the Lord,
Who created you, Jacob,
Who formed you, Israel:
Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by your name, you are mine.
Should you pass through the sea, I will be with you;
Or through rivers, they will not swallow you up.
Should you walk through fire, you will not be scorched and the flames will not burn you.
For I am the Lord, your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour.

Commentary

The Rite of Election for Catechumens and Formal Recognition of Candidates marks an important step in the conversion journey. Although there are many reasons for choosing to become Catholic, the common thread shared is the initial invitation to 'come and see', which always comes from God.

Isaiah reminds us that God has created and formed us. God has personally extended His invitation of love: 'I have called you by your name, you are mine.' This is the catechumen's and candidate's election to the Sacraments of Initiation or Full Communion with the Catholic Church. The response of the catechumens and candidates to this invitation includes discerning their free choice to say yes to Christ's invitation. Although the pilgrim journey may involve many struggles, God is always with us, He is our Saviour.

2nd Reading [Romans 8:28-30]

We know that by turning everything to their good God co-operates with all those who love Him, with all those that He has called according to His purpose. They are the ones He chose specially long ago and intended to become true images of His Son, so that His Son might be the eldest of many brothers. He called those he intended for this; those He called He justified, and with those He justified He shared His glory.

Commentary

At the Rite of Election, the Archbishop articulates God's hospitality and invitation to come to the Sacraments of Initiation. St Paul reiterates God's calling, and for 'His purpose', not our own. Often, we justify our choices and reasons for what we do. Paul teaches us that God's intention is for us to freely co-operate with His grace of love and become brothers and sisters of Christ. The familial intimacy of this relationship is clear, we are no longer outsiders, but one with Jesus, sharing in His glory.

Gospel [Matthew 4: 1-11]

Jesus was led by the Spirit out into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, after which He was very hungry, and the tempter came and said to Him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to turn into loaves.' But He replied, 'Scripture says: Man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'

The devil then took Him to the holy city and made Him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God,' he said, 'throw yourself down; for scripture says: He will put you in his angels' charge, and they will support you on their hands in case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

Jesus said to him, 'Scripture also says: You must not put the Lord your God to the test.' Next, taking Him to a very high mountain, the devil showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour. 'I will give you all these', he said, 'if you fall at my feet and worship me.'

Then Jesus replied, 'Be off, Satan! For scripture says: You must worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone.'

Then the devil left Him, and angels appeared and looked after Him.

Commentary

The Year A Gospels have a particular affinity with the process of Christian Initiation. The Gospel of Matthew from the 1st Sunday of Lent reflects the Lenten journey of discernment. Jesus in the wilderness is confronted three times by the devil. The challenges posed by the devil, attack three basic aspects of our human nature: hunger, pride and arrogance.

The discernment process is supported through the Lenten Liturgies and involves profound reflection on: the deepening relationship with Christ; growing in the practice of prayer and worship; an emerging familiarity with Christ's teaching through the Gospels; the sense of belonging to the parish community and wider Catholic Church; an understanding of being called to living Christ's mission.

The loving nature of God is one of freedom. Although God has chosen and called each one of us, we must freely contemplate our readiness for reception into the Catholic faith: for catechumens that is, the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Communion; for candidates seeking Full Communion with the Catholic Church, the Sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Communion.
