Opening prayer:

Lord Jesus help us to be open to learn more about your life and ministry so that we may discover the truth about your life and ministry. Through our conversations and reflections may we begin to discover the truth about our own self and the ways in which we can minister to others in our daily lives.

Types of ministry	Scripture Ref	Context

Scripture reflection: How Jesus ministry brought new life, new hope, new possibilities for people, and the changes that occurred in their lives as a result:

Using one of the following passages:

- John 9:1-12 Jesus heals the blind man,
- Mtt 5:1-12 Jesus teaching the crowds,
- John 8:2-11 the woman caught in adultery – Jesus challenges the accusers.

Personal reflection:

- In what areas of my life do I need help and healing from Jesus?
- In what ways do I help to bring healing to others?
- What are the obstacles that prevent me from ministering to others?

One Body with Many Members 1 Corinthians 12:12-31

¹² For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³ For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

¹⁴ Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. ¹⁵ If the foot would say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁶ And if the ear would say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? ¹⁸ But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. ¹⁹ If all were a single member, where would the body be? ²⁰ As it is, there are many members, yet one body. ²¹ The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.” ²² On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, ²³ and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; ²⁴ whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, ²⁵ that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. ²⁶ If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

²⁷ Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. ²⁸ And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. ²⁹ Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? ³⁰ Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? ³¹ But strive for the greater gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.

Personal reflection:

- How is the reading speaking to me of my life in general
- Of the contribution I make to my family, my school, my work environment, hobby and friendship groups, society in general, the church?
