Priest's Greeting & Receiving the Catechumens & Candidates:

[From RCIA #49]

This morning we have the pleasure of welcoming (Named here if preferred).... Adults, who have not yet been baptised; and have begun their journey with our parish RCIA Team and today make an initial commitment to continue this journey by becoming part of the Catechumenate process.

We also have seated in the front pews, (depending on option of Introductory Rite) ... (Named here if preferred) Christians who by virtue of their Baptism, also wish to further enquire into the Catholic Church and through today's Rite will be strengthened and supported.

Standing at the threshold of a new life in the Church, both the unbaptised and the baptised candidates will be welcomed within our Parish community. [The Parish Companion p.87]

Priest Addresses Assembly:

And so my friends are you willing to pray for, encourage and welcome these candidates as they continue their journey of faith?

All: We are.

Opening Dialogue with Catechumens: [From RCIA #50]

Priest: What is your name?

Catechumen: N.

(Only used if catechumens were not previously introduced)

Priest: What do you ask of God's Church?

Catechumen: Faith

Priest: What does faith offer you?

Catechumen: Eternal life.

[The Priest invites the Candidates and Sponsors to join the Catechumens and Sponsors on the Sanctuary Steps.]

Opening Dialogue with Candidates: [The Parish Companion p.87]

Priest: What do you ask of God's Church?

Candidate: I ask your welcome and support so that I may know the Lord more deeply and live my baptism with you as a full member of the Catholic Church.

[The manner of acting or praying is intentionally left undetermined ..., so that ministers, according to their prudent pastoral judgement, may accommodate the Rite to the circumstances of the candidates and others who are present. RCIA #35]

[The Priest invites the Catechumen's and Candidates Sponsor's to introduce them to the Parish community]

Priest: Sponsors would you please introduce your candidate to those of the community gathered here this morning.

Sponsor: I have much pleasure in introducing ...N...to you, who is seeking acceptance into the Catechumenate.

[RCIA #51 The Candidates' First Acceptance of the Gospel may be replaced by the Rite of Exorcism # 70-72]

Catechumens' First Acceptance of the Gospel:

[RCIA#52; Option B]

Priest:

God is our Creator and in Him all living things have their existence. He enlightens our minds, so that we may come to know and worship Him. He has sent His faithful witness, Jesus Christ, to announce to us what he has seen and heard, the mysteries of heaven and earth.

Since you acknowledge with joy that Christ has come, now is the time to hear His word, so that you may possess eternal life by beginning, in our company, to know God and to love your neighbour. Are you ready, with the help of God, to live this life?

Catechumens: I am.

Invitation to Candidates to Live the Baptismal Call with the Church: [The Parish Companion p.88]

Priest:

God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has freed you from sin and given you new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, through your Baptism, into the dying and rising of the Lord.

Are you prepared to obey more closely your Baptismal call to follow Jesus who is The Way, The Truth and The Life, and to join us in a life of prayer and service?

Candidates: I am.

Affirmation by the Sponsors and the Assembly: [RCIA #53]

Priest:

Sponsors, you now present these candidates to us; are you, and all who are gathered here with us, ready to help these candidates find and follow Christ?

Sponsor: We are.

Priest:

And I ask you all: do you welcome our candidates and promise to be a support and living sign of Christian faith to them?

All: We are.

With hands joined, the celebrant says:

[The Parish Companion p.88]

Priest:

Let us pray:

Gracious God, so many journeys of faith, all of them unfinished, begin to intertwine today. We thank you for the new life you bring us. As we walk our pilgrim way together make us a strength to each other and sign of faithfulness to all we meet.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All sing or say: We Praise you, Lord, and we bless you.

Signing of The Cross:

[RCIA # 54 (Option A) -56; The Parish Companion p.89]

Priest:

Catechumens step forward now with your sponsors to receive the sign of your new way of life as catechumens.

[The Priest and Sponsor trace a cross on the forehead of the catechumens]

Priest:

Candidates step forward now with you sponsors and receive once more the Sign of The Cross which first claimed you at your baptism. May the dying and rising of the Lord touch every part of your life so that His way may become your way.

[The Priest and Sponsor trace a cross on the forehead of the candidates]

Priest:

N. Receive this cross on your forehead.
It is Christ Himself now who strengthens you with this sign of His love.
Learn to know Him and follow Him.

[All sing or say the following or another suitable acclamation.]

All: Glory and Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

Signing of the Senses:

- The Signing is a beautiful prayer and reminds the assembly to practice the graces they already receive.
- The celebrant may invite Sponsors and a member of the community (optional) to Sign the Senses following his instruction.
- The celebrant may prefer to Sign the Senses of the catechumens and candidates himself.
- Pastoral sensitivity must be shown for personal space, as people may not wish to be physically touched. Particular care should be taken for signing the heart. It is advisable to sign the shoulder area.

Priest:

Receive the sign of the cross on your ears, that you may hear the voice of the Lord.

Receive the sign of the cross on your eyes, that you may see the glory of God.

Receive the sign of the cross on your lips, that you may respond to the word of God.

Receive the sign of the cross over your heart, that Christ may dwell there by faith.

Receive the sign of the cross on your shoulders, that you may bear the gentle yoke of Christ.

Receive the sign of the cross on your hands, that you may do the work of the Lord.

Receive the sign of the cross on your feet, that you may follow in the footsteps of our Shepherd.

Priest:

[RCIA # 56]

I sign you with the sign of eternal life in the name of the Father, and of the Son +
and of the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

Presentation of a Bible or Missal:

[RCIA # 64; The Parish Companion p.90]
